

Didjeridu Weddings

"To have you there to play your didgeridu was the final touch in our perfect and magical day...thank you!" Vitor and Lara

The haunting and captivating sounds of the world's oldest wind instrument can be part of your fondest memories on your very special day.

At the Ceremony As a special moment during your ceremony, on your arrival, your departure, or as a special part of proceedings such as during the signing of your marriage certificate.

At the Reception At any time suitable to you during your grand celebration with family and friends, and particularly moving when heard by your guests on their arrival – or yours – to the reception.

Didjeridu can be played solo or easily coupled with other instruments or disc-jockeys for a unique and uplifting musical experience.
